ABOUT RESCUE DIVER COURSE

The PADI Rescue Diver course is designed to enhance your existing diving skills, boosting your confidence while introducing essential emergency techniques. Many divers find this course both challenging and rewarding, as it provides an opportunity to push personal limits and gain invaluable skills in managing diving emergencies.

Havelock Island serves as an ideal location for this training. It offers favorable conditions, stunning underwater landscapes, and diverse dive sites. These elements ensure a comprehensive training experience that prepares divers for a variety of underwater situations.
